Fire production in the middle of the room.

High-performance fireplace solutions with style.

Technical perfection is the basis for every dream of fire. However it is only the combination of high-tech and craftsmanship that can provide the basis for a truly individual fireplace. The variety of shapes and variants we have created inspires and enthuses customers right around the world.

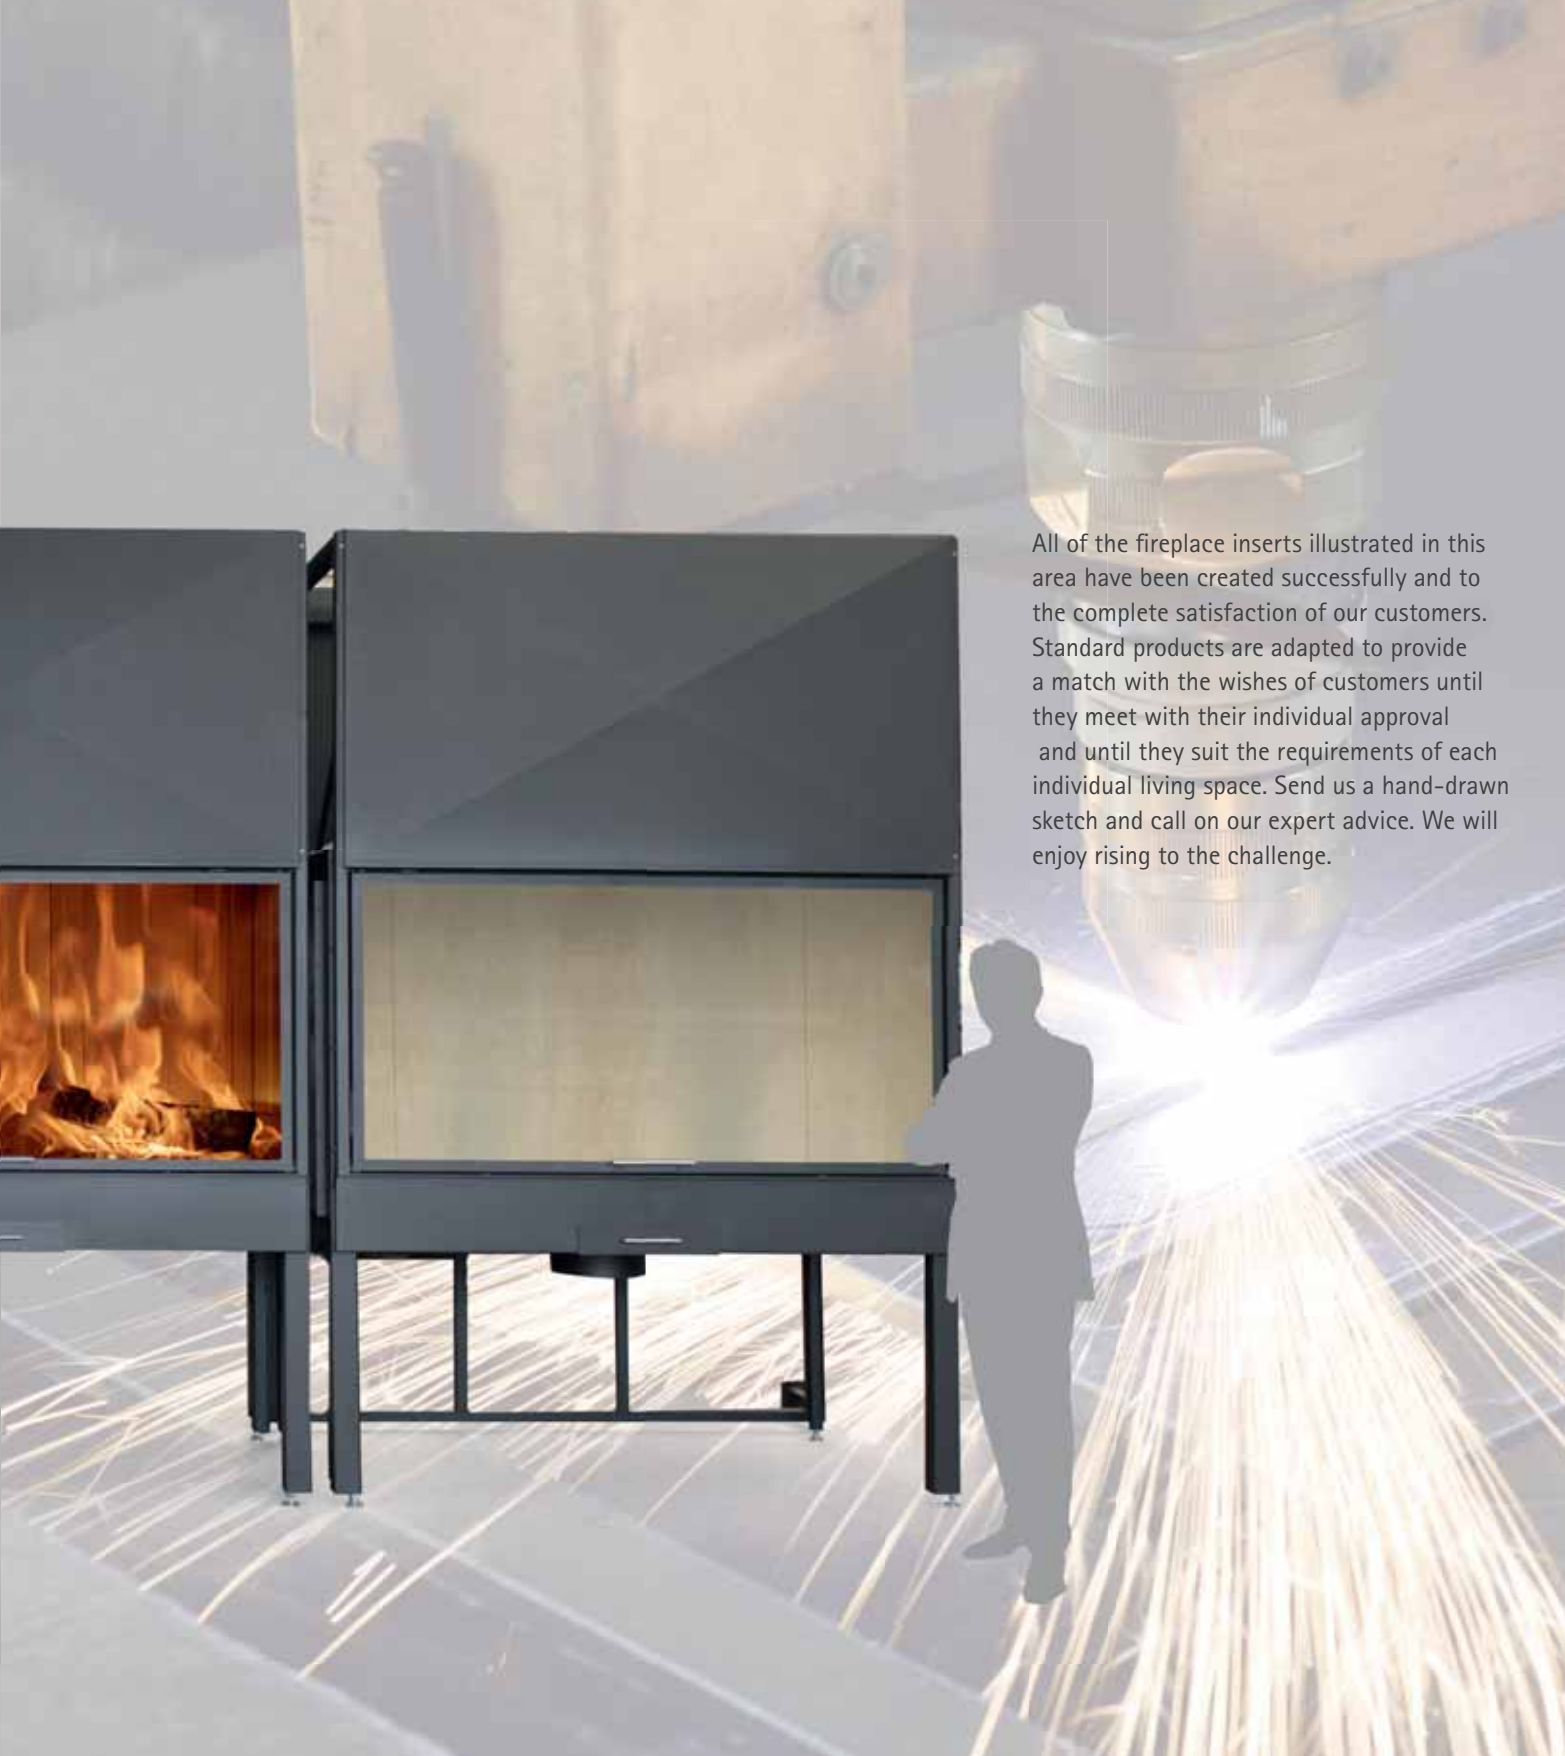

Have you yet to find your dream fireplace?

Size, shape and layout – we create your draft concept to your individual stipulations. For 30 years, Spartherm has successfully met every challenge thanks to its pioneering spirit.

All of the fireplace inserts illustrated in this area have been created successfully and to the complete satisfaction of our customers. Standard products are adapted to provide a match with the wishes of customers until they meet with their individual approval and until they suit the requirements of each individual living space. Send us a hand-drawn sketch and call on our expert advice. We will enjoy rising to the challenge.
